REBATES TO TAXPAYERS

List of Those Receiving Rebates on Personal Property

CAUSED BY LOWER TAX RATE

The following constitutes the list of tax rebates which are being returned to the taxpayers by County Auditor J. J. Mathews on the personal property tax. For the enlightenment of those who do not understand why this rebate is made we will explain:

The personal property tax each year is computed on the previous year's assessment rate and before the supervisors set the rate for the current year. Therefore, if the rate set by the supervisors is lower than that of the previous year, those who have to pay a personal property tax get a rebate. On the other hand, when the rate is higher than that of the previous year the additional amount is collected with their regular taxes. Last year the rate of taxation was $2.75. This year it has been set at $2.50, hence the rebate.

Mrs. Mathews is writing the warrants for the various amounts and will send them out upon application.

NEW CASES FILED IN SUPERIOR COURT

Actions Begun the Past Week

Jamison Bros., through Weldon & Hurley, have filed an attachment against the Noble Electric Steel Co., which was recently operating the Redwood valley manganese mines.

Robert Duncan, in behalf of Mrs. Anna Gambrel, has filed a complaint against P. E. Blalack et al seeking to prohibit the defendants from building a dam across Russian river below her property. A temporary restraining injunction has been sought and issued.

Preston & Preston and C. H. McConnaughy have filed a complaint in behalf of August West against Frank Randolph et al. The action is brought to quiet title to property at Fort Bragg.

J. K. Peirsol, in behalf of Esther Rushing, has filed a petition for letters of administration on the estate of Jas. A. Joyce, who died recently at Noyo, leaving an estate valued at about $3,750. This amount consists of cash on deposit in various banks.

TURNER TURNED LOOSE

Harry Turner, who was arrested at Willits the latter part of last week and brought to Ukiah for his preliminary, came up before Judge Crockett last Monday on a charge of burglary. He was charged with having broken into Ray Nunamaker's room stealing coin amounting to $23.80. A twenty-dollar piece with a peculiar mark filed on the milled edge, was identified at Willits by Nunamaker previous to the trial as having belonged to him, and it was this coin on which the prosecution relied for its evidence. However, when Nunamaker was put on the stand he was not sure that the coin was the same that was previously identified by him, and as he could not swear to it, the case collapsed, and Turner was turned loose.

PRESBYTERIAN PLAY IS POSTPONED

The play, "Fanchon, the Crickett" which was to have been given early this month for the benefit of the Presbyterian church, has been postponed until a later date owing to illness in the family of Mrs. Bessie Cox, who is playing the leading role. The play is under the direction of Mrs. Jennie J. Mathews.

Mrs. Mathews has coached many amateur plays for local staging and her work is so good that the theatre goers of Ukiah are looking forward to the production of "Fanchion" with much pleasure.

THE WEATHER

The storm the first of the week has been of inestimable benefit to the farmers and stockmen of this county, as the ranges and pastures were getting perilously short and the outlook for the winter was not reassuring to say the least. However, the generous soaking has set all fears at rest.

Dr. McCowen reports as follows for the week's temperature and rainfall:

Maximum temperature, 67, on the 5th; minimum, 27, on the 10th and 11th. Rain 1.70, making 2.07 for the season to date, against 2.37 to date last year.

CLELAND AND POWELL OVER GRADE MONDAY

While returning from the exposition last Monday evening, Hirschel Cleland and Bub Powell in Cleland's car went over the grade in the vicinity of Fred Waugh's ranch on the Hopland road. The boys walked on to the Holliday place, where they spent the night. No damage was done.

BUYS WILLITS PROPERTY

Preston & Preston, acting for the creditors of Theo. Schieve, the builder of the "Postoffice" building at Willits, have bought the property. The amount of the judgment against Shieve was $7,915, and the sale was held last week.

DECEMBER FESTIVAL PROGRESSING AUSPICIOUSLY

Committies Report Encouragingly

Reports from the several committees in charge of the festival, to be held in December to raise money to erect sheds to protect the school children from the rain, are very encouraging and everyone is doing what they can to make the affair a success.

While the bulk of the money is expected to be made from the sale of articles in the various booths, those attending the festival will be entertained with an excellent program. Many have volunteered to take part, and musical and other features by the children will attract those who are interested in talent of the juveniles. Mrs. Rodwick's kindergarten and children from the primary, grammar and high schools will take part and many novel and entertaining musical and literary numbers have been incorporated in the program.

The public are reminded that they can purchase many of their presents for Christmas at the booths, as well as good things to eat and useful articles of wearing apparel; in fact, there will be a greater variety of things on sale than at any previous fair held in Ukiah.

It is not necessary to emphasize the need of play sheds for the children, where they can be protected from the rain, nor the desirability of keeping them from contracting colds during our long winter months; and everyone having the interests of the children at heart should heartily cooperate with the ladies having charge of the festival, and donate needed articlels and be present at the hall to help swell the fund for the purchase of materials to erect the sheds.

Heretofore, when money has been required for any public requirement, subscriptions have been circulated, but the women of Ukiah do not ask for cash contributions, and will raise the required sum by giving value received for every dollar that will go into the sheds, and for that reason should have every encouragement from the community.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses were issued the past week to Antone Quaille and Dina Figaro, of Mendocino; J. Mervyn Jones and Hattie Purcell, of Covelo.

Clyde Brooks and Mabel Carner, of Potter valley.

Jas. Simonen and Cicily Johnson, of Covelo. The latter couple were married here yesterday by Judge Crockett.

A secret license was issued to a popular Fort Bragg couple also.

NEWTON CASE DISMISSED

The case of the People vs. Newton was dismissed last Friday morning on account of the inability of the prosecution to produce the prosecuting witness. Newton was arrested on a charge of burglary committed at Ridgewood. He was taken in charge by his sister on being set free and left with her for his home in Eureka.

Attorney Mockler conducted the defense.

MACKAY-THOM

Walter Mackay and Miss Faith Thom were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Simpson in this city.

Both are recent arrivals, the groom having held a chair at the Cameron & Simpson barber shop for several months. A charivari was tendered by friends on Friday evening.

TWO HUNTERS PINCHED FOR KILLING DEER OUT OF SEASON

Carl Rennick and Percy Madden were arrested Wednesday evening by Bert Miller for having the carcass of a deer in their possession out of season. They pleaded guilty before Judge Crockett yesterday morning and were given a fine of $25 apiece.

M. E. CHURCH STEWARDS BANQUETTED BY PASTOR

The stewards of the M. E. church, south, were given a banquet last Tuesday evening on the occasion of their meeting. The affair was somewhat of a surprise, but a very agreeable one withall. The host and hostess were Rev. and Mrs. S. P. Pope and they did the thing up in grand style. Two turkeys formed the piece-de-resistance of the feast and both they and the incidental trimmings were much relished by the assembled brethren. Mrs. Pope is a cook who would please the most particular epicure.

PAPPAS AWARDED $15

Attorneys Hugh Preston and M. H. Iversen this week received word that the state accident commission had awarded George Pappas the sum of $15. Pappas was injured by a flying piece of steel while cutting wood for John Warren at Sherwood some time ago. The $15 was for medical attendance for Pappas, and as Warren had already paid it he will not be out any additional sum. Pappas is a Greek and some of his countrymen got hold of him and made him believe that he could get $500 for his injury.

AUTO THIEVES PLEAD GUILTY

Evans and Quinn, the two young thieves who stole Pressley McPeak's auto from Willits two weeks ago, and were apprehended in Sonoma county, came up for arraignment in the superior court last Monday. Both plead guilty and waived time, and the case was referred to the probation officer for investigation of their records before judgment should be pronounced. One week's time was given for the investigation.

CHANGE OF VENUE REFUSED IN LAKE CASE

The state supreme court has refused the petition for a change of venue in the case of the Yolo Water and Power company against certain citizens of Lake county. The cases will be tried in Lake county therefore. Messrs. Preston & Preston of this place are associated with the attorneys for the defendants. The cases are condemnatory proceedings, brought about by the operations of the company in damming up Clear lake.

KORRY-LA CROUTS

On the evening of November 9th, Judge White, at the residence of Mrs. Marie Held in Ukiah, united in the bonds of matrimony, Paul B. Korry and Miss Bridgett La Crouts.

Mr. Korry is a native of Syria, and has come to this county to make it his home. He is the gas engineer at the gas works, also at the asylum.

His bride is a native of France and is well known here as a pleasant and industrious young woman. May success and happiness attend them.

FORT BRAGG MAN IS ARRESTED IN EUREKA

C. V. Kesti, of Fort Bragg, was arrested in Eureka last Saturday on a charge of deserting his family. Kesti disappeared from Fort Bragg several months ago, and for a time it was thought that he had committed suicide by some.

Deputy Sheriff Clay went after him the first of the week, returning Tuesday.

BUNYARD PLACE SOLD

Attorney Keith Eversole has bought the F. M. Bunyard place on the road to the county hospital and is having the house repaired. Keith will not say whether the buy is an investment or whether developments of a matrimonial nature may be expected soon.

THREE YEARS FOR STUBROD

Harry Stubrod, convicted of robbery the latter part of last week by a jury in the superior court, came up for sentence last Saturday morning. He was handed three years in San Quentin by Judge White.

JURY IS OUT ON HARVEY CASE

Pt. Arena Murderer on Trial In Superior Court

EVIDENCE AGAINST DEFENDANT

The case of the People vs. Wm. Harvey, charged with the murder of John Dixon at Point Arena, has been going on in the superior court before Judge White and a jury since Tuesday.

Yesterday was naturalization day in court, but the judge posponed it until today and insisted that the case proceed uninterruptedly until it went to jury.

A large number of witnesses were summoned from the coast by both the prosecution and the defense. Chas. Kasch, who conducted the case for the accused man, put a defense of insanity and attempted to prove that Harvey had been persecuted and that such persecution had continued so long that he was mentally unbalanced at the time he shot Dixon.

On the other hand the testimony brought out by Dist. Atty. McCowen was calculated to show that Harvey was a man of bad reputation when drinking and that his shooting of Dixon was a cold-blooded murder, the result of bad feeling toward Dixon by the prisoner on account of having been arrested at various times when unruly by the murdered man.

Atty. Kasch finally abandoned any attempt to get his man off, and confined his efforts to getting a verdict of second degree murder. The judge's instructions to the jury contained no reference to manslaughter, and differentiated only between the verdicts of first-degree and second-degree murder.

As we go to press the jury is hung, having gone out last evening at 4:10. Through the grapevine telegraph it is stated that they are 10 to 2 for something, but how the information got out and whether the two are holding out for hanging or for second degree murder or for life imprisonment, all of which verdicts are within their province, is not to be ascertained. The verdict under the judge's instructions could be either of these, and the matter is one for them to decide alone.

DEATH OF MRS. UNDERHILL

Sherwood, Nov. 9—Mrs. Millie Underhill passed away shortly after two o'clock in the afternoon of Nov. 6 at the home of Chas. Underhill in Sherwood valley, where she had lived for some time in care of her son and daughter, Chas. Underhill and Mrs. Sarah Crane.

The deceased was a native of Missouri and seventy-eight years of age, and was among the pioneer settlers in Sonoma Co., having come across the plains in forty-nine. Her home was at Santa Rosa for many years, where she was married to J. G. Underhill. The husband has now been dead some thirty-three years. Among the children living to mourn the loss are, Wm. H. Underhill, Chas Underhill, Mrs. Mary Eagle, Mrs. Sarah Crane, John Underhill and Mrs. Neva Rodgers.

The remains were taken to Santa Rosa where she was buried beside her husband.

FINE WORK ON THE LAKE COUNTY ROAD

Those who have had occasion to travel over the Lake county road the past few weeks have had a good word to speak for Supervisor Ford. Mr. Ford has had about four miles of gravel put on the road, and in addition has rocked and filled the holes. The road is now in fine shape for the winter and after the gravel has packed from the wet weather, the old mud holes will be a thing of the past. The road will be passable for auto traffic all winter as far as the Mendocino county line. What Lake is doing remains to be seen.

PRUNE PRICES ARE GOING UP

Big Orders From Eng. and France

With half of the California prune crop already contracted to foreign buyers and prices advanced from 4½ to a 5 cent basis, there is a feeling in the local trade, as expressed by two leading dealers in interviews today, that a further advance may presently be announced, according to the Daily Journal of Commerce of San Francisco. Orders from France and England in the last two weeks have amounted to nearly 80,000,000 lbs., and inquiries from the same sources continue.

The position of California growers was never stronger. The foreign demand, wholly unexpected last summer when growers were organizing to hold their crops for the 5 cent basis, has proven a windfall to them. Of a crop estimated at 175,000,000 pounds, only about 35,000,000, according to today's estimates, remain in the hands of growers, a smaller proportion of their crop than they have ever before held at this season.

A season's production of 40,000,000 below normal further strengthens their position. Practically all the balance of the crop is in the hands of packers. Domestic demand has so far taken only about 60,000,000 pounds, and the fact that the season opened with stocks little above normal indicates that they are somewhat below the point usual at this season.

Specifications now being received call for immediate all-rail shipment to New York in spite of the considerably larger freight rates by that route. The English importer seems to want all the available stocks as soon as they can be got to him, and many are expressing irritations at the delay in cable transmission and shipping.

The explanation for the enormous foreign demand given by San Francisco operators is that the normally heavy production in the Balkan nations has not materialized, and the French crop is also far below normal. All of northern Europe has been largely supplied from these sources in the past. In Bulgaria and Roumania the lightness of the crop was due to natural conditions and all the available supply is being held for domestic uses.

The same condition prevails in France except that the military conditions has been an added factor. In Serbia also additional difficulty has been caused by lack of labor. Finding herself cut off from these sources, England first turned to the United States, and it was admitted that the buying has been in progress since June.

At that time, however, packers were ostensibly inclined to speak lightly of the demands of the growers. Efforts were made, more or less successfully, to contract then for crops and the prune-growing districts were canvassed with unusual vigor by the packers. An abnormally large carry-over was pointed to and the foreign demand was forecast to be below normal. The general disposition of the growers, however, with unfavorable weather conditions foreshadowing a short crop, was to take chances on carrying the crop themselves. Packers were then quoting them a 3¾ cent basis, a few granting that the 4 cent basis might be reached in the year.

MEETINGS AT POTTER VALLEY

Rev. D. and Mrs. Catchpole spent last week in Potter valley holding special meetings in the M. E. church south. Rev. D. Spencer has been holding special meetings there ever since he left this city. The pastor of the local Baptist church assisted him, and Mrs. Catchpole conducted the singing and music each evening.

The meetings were well attended and much interest manifested, several taking a stand for a better life.

Dr. Spencer will return to Potter valley on Nov. 13th and continue the special services in the North Methodist church, and Rev. D. Catchpole, of Ukiah, will give an occasional service hereafter.

JOHN JUNE HELD BY CLOVERDALE JUSTICE

John June, former owner of the Orange City hotel and until the last two years one of the best known residents of northern Sonoma, was hel dfor trial in the superior court by Justice Breck Ornbaun on Wednesday, says the Cloverdale Reveille.

The defendant is charged with having obtained by fraud $800 from Jesse Park in a land transaction, the trouble growing out of the relinquishment of a homestead in southern Mendocino. From the testimony given by Parks, it appears that he wanted to take up a piece of government land. June accompanied him from Merced county and showed him a piece of land that a man named E. F. Benning had filed on, but had not completed the requirements of the homestead law. Benning, however, was willing to give up the land, having decided not to complete his residence thereon. According to Parks, June was to place him on this land for $800, which Parks claims he paid.

Benning declares that June was not authorized to act in his behalf and that June never turned over a cent to him for his relinquishment.

After listening to the testimony and the argument of counsel, Justice Ornbaun decided to hold the defendant for trial in the superior court. He is on bonds in the sum of $2500.

APPOINT NEW POSTMASTER AT MANCHESTER

The postoffice department announces that Leslie Bishop has been appointed postmaster at Manchester, this county, the commission taking effect October 30th. He took the examination here last July. His many friends will congratulate him on receiving the appointment.

Miss Bertha Steele, of Hopland, was a Ukiah visitor the latter part of last week, accompanied by Miss Elsie Mudgett, of Fortuna.

GUALALA ITEMS

Gualala, Oct. 31—The election passed off quietly in Gualala. Not many votes were polled, and but little interest shown, many taking the same view of these special elections as the Dispatch does. Why this unnecessary expense to our state? We are glad these amendments were defeated. Why are so many puzzling questions put before the public? so many voters can not read them, and if they could, there are few that could understand them. We think it time such questions were settled in a different manner. We send men to make our laws, why not trust them to do so, and not bring before the public and depend upon the people to decide important questions when so many voters are so narrow and selfish, voting to their own interests regardless of others, or what really is a benefit to our country? I think there is a chance for improvement on these laws.

Atley Bowles, of Point Arena, has moved his family into the Stanley house on Mr. Johnson's place until he is able to repair his own on the Hackley place. We are glad to welcome new neighbors and pupils to our school.

Delma St. Ores came to visit his foster mother, Mrs. St. Ores, of Bourns landing, Thursday of last week, leaving for Willits the following Monday.

Miss Blanche Dodge, who has been visiting with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Getchell of Bourns landing left for her home in San Francisco last Wednesday.

Stoddard & Buchannan, our enterprising stage company, is to put a fine new Kissel car from Stewarts point to Cazadero much larger than the one now in use.

Jack Kave, Gualala bookkeeper, left for San Francisco last week to take in the beauties and wonders of the jewel city.

Mr. Suttegast of San Francisco was a guest of Wm. Smith last week, coming here to look for a location. He returned to San Francisco last week. It remains to be seen how much impressed he was with our rough looking country.

The piece of road at McNamee's is progressing very well. The grading is about all finished. The bridge will soon be completed and that dreaded hill will be a thing of the past.

The Hallowe'en party at the Sail Rock school house was quite a success. Dancing was among the amusements of the evening. The gathering brought neighbors that had not met for months. A good social time was enjoyed. A ball was given in Gualala Hall the same evening and a good time reported with a full house and good music.

We most humbly beg pardon for misspelled names in former letters and for all misinformation.

While we have all enjoyed the beautiful fall weather, we are anxiously watching for a real good rain to start the farmer's plow and feed growing.

The old ocean has been quite rough and stormy looking the last week, which old timers tells us is a sign of storms.

ORNBAUN NEWS

Ornbaun, Nov. 4—H. N. Ornbaun and family started to the exposition Wednesday. They expect to make quite a long stay, visiting with their daughter, Eleanor, in Kings county before they return.

I. B. Elkins and wife are visiting at the fair. They are accompanied by their two nieces, Barbara and Dora Rickard.

B. R. Ogle and family went to Cloverdale Saturday, returning Monday.

M. W. FAIRBANKS WAS OLD PIONEER

A Short Sketch of His History

(Written for the Dispatch)

Last Sunday the following members of Abell lodge, No. 146, F. and A. M., motored to Anderson valley to perform the last services for a deceased brother, M. W. Fairbanks, viz., Hale McCowen, jr., W. S. Van Dyke, J. R. Mathews, P. W. Handy, Wm. Bromley, Neil Anker, jr., George Richardson, Archie McGimsey, Wm. Chessall and Geo. McCowen.

Mandal Whipple Fairbanks was born in Springfield, Vermont, Oct. 25, 1888. He came to California in 1859 and engaged in hunting for the market in Tuolumne and Calaveras counties. In the early 60's he trapped and killed bear for the Shafter Bros. in Marin county and is credited with having killed 50 bears on that range.

In 1871 he came to Mendocino county, buying the ranch which bears his name near Anderson valley, where he carried on the business of sheep raising and wool growing, which was familiar to him in his boyhood days in Vermont. But hunting was his chief interest and he delighted in taking a party of friends on deer hunts through the forests of his mountain home.

In later life he had a fancy for collecting old style firearms, together with the new, of which he had a large collection, and would relate the history of each valued pistol or gun to a circle of interested listeners.

For some four or five years his health had been failing and he went to Santa Rosa for medical attention last summer, accompanied by his devoted wife. He gradually grew worse but all the time he kept cheerful and kept making bright plans for the future almost to the very last.

He died at Santa Rosa, Oct. 28, and the remains were taken to the ranch and there interred with Masonic ceremonies on a point within sight of the home and beside the grave of his little son, who died years ago. It seemed to him that the child was nearer to him when a few steps would take him within sight of his grave.

Mr. Fairbanks was honest and upright in all his dealings. An enthusiast, he was ever willing to divide his possessions and nothing was good enough for those he considered his friends.

He affiliated with Abell lodge, No. 146, April 29, 1877, having been previously a member of St. John's lodge, No. 41, of Maine.

He leaves a wife, a daughter by a former marriage in Springfield, Vermont, and two sisters residing in New York city.

In localities where soy beans or cowpeas are grown extensively, experience has shown that the price of the seed on the home market holds up well so long as there is local demand enough to take all the seed grown, but falls to about $1 a bushel when it becomes necessary to ship to find a market.

CIVIC SECTION NETS GOOD SUM FROM PLAY

Will Devote it to Public Benefits

The civic section of the Saturday Afternoon club met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the chairman, Mrs. F. E. Rea, who reported that $190.15 had been taken in as the result of the benefit performance of "War Brides" last Friday night at the Victory theatre. The expense of putting on the play was about $70.00, leaving a profit of $120. A large part of this sum will be used to purchase the graphophone and records for the high school, and the remainder will be used to beautify McGarvey park.

The committee of club women who will purchase the machine are, Mrs. F. E. Rea, Miss Tibbits and Mrs. Toles. A full financial statement will appear in the papers next week. The faculty and pupils of the high school deserve great credit for the enthusiasm shown in the selling of the tickets, and there is no doubt but that the machine will fill a much needed want in the high school equipment especially in the language classes where the records will be used to give the pupils a correct pronunciation of German and Latin. The civic section will meet again on next Wednesday afternoon to make fancy articles for the December fair for the benefit of the grammar school.

UKIAH HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(Ross Ryder, Correspondent)

Ukiah vanquished an old basket ball enemy last Saturday evening when Lakeport was defeated by a score of 17 to 16. At the end of the first half the score was 14 to 6, but during the last half Lakeport hit her stride and thus her final score was made somewhat larger. Nevertheless the score suits us for this is the first time we have walloped Lakeport in seven years. The Ukiah boys attribute a great deal of credit for the victory on Coach Mockler, who they say has worked long and faithfully towards making our team one of the best in this section of the state. Both teams played rousing good basket ball, and until the final whistle blew the outcome was in doubt.

Several students accompanied the team and took charge of the rooting. The "bean snappers" turned out in mass and tried to pull off some yells, but not a sound of these could be heard. The reason for this silence on their part was not because they wanted to be still on their own accord, but that a couple of our girls were operating a hand klaxonette with great success. The Lakeport cheers, such as they were, sounded like a penny whistle in a boiler factory. The question has been asked if the Lakeporters burnt each member of the basketball team in effigy as they did our debaters last year. It seems too bad for the success of the Lakeport basketball team that Lakeport referees cannot be unanimously in charge of things. Had such been the case, the score would have been different, Oh muchly so!

Miss Haile, who has been confined to her bed for the past week with a severe case of bronchitis, is again with us, and things have again settled in their accustomed stride. We were afraid for a while that our musical instructor would not be with us very soon, and are all very thankful that she is recovered and back with us again.

The literary society program, or lyceum, which was held last Friday was very good. The skit, enacted by several of the girls, was very amusing. Melissa's little declamation on "dunnos" was very good. Margaret Van Dyke's solo was cheered to the echo and she was forced to give us encore, which she rendered delightfully. The bi-monthly was short and sweet, but good nevertheless. Lawrence Beckley's reading was well rendered.

Floyd Day and Donald Thompson, who have been doing the fair, returned to school last Monday. Floyd still believes that "The End of the Trail" represents a sick horse.

At a student body meeting last Monday Mr. Schoer put up a new time schedule to be voted upon. The new schedule was adopted unanimously and starts school at 9:5, has one hour for dinner and lets out at 3.

Mr. Conway and wife, Lew Farrer and Lois Hutchison rambled to Boonville last Sunday afternoon in Mr. Conway's Ford. A delightful trip was reported as Mr. and Mrs. Conway seemed blissfully ignorant that there were any occupants whatsoever in the back seat. Mr. Conway reports no mishaps and says that the Ford made all the hills on the high without much trouble.

Ethel Ford is rapidly recovering from her attack of typhoid fever and is now on the road to Wellville. We are at loss what to do without this merry junior and all send a message to Ethel wishing her a rapid recovery.

The "War Brides," put on last Friday at the Victory theatre by local talent for the benefit of the high school was a great success. The acting was admirable and we should be proud that our school was so ably represented by Miss Marguerite Aldrich as Arno. The proceeds of the play are to be used for our benefit so we are interested to know that the public was generous and that the proceeds are large.

E. L. Toles, power behind the basketball kingdom, made the trip last Saturday to Lakeport and reports a very delightful trip. When interviewed about Lakeport in general he said, "On comparing the Lakeport girls and our girls I find that a certain fair one from Hopland is the fairest in the world." We do not dispute this fact but it seems that Toles must consider that Lakeport has a world of good looking girls.

Miss Tibbetts has been holding book reviews the last week. She reports a very good set of papers.

Mr. Jussell is planning to wage war on the weeds on the campus next spring.

The last week has been examination week and each and every one of us have burned the midnight oil at least once during the week preparing for an expecially hard quiz the next day.

Tonight the different Sunday schools of the town hold a reception at the Christian church in our honor. Elaborate preparations have been made to give us a royal time.

Our song service was held this afternoon. The Junior class officers selected the songs, so of course they are very high class.

Since the rain has commenced we are certainly unpleasantly aware of the fact that the need of a new building is not a day dream originating in the minds of some fanciful student, but that this need has become a necessity. When it is pleasant weather the greater number of the boys stay out of doors at the noon period, engaging in various sports. Since the weather has become inclement these same students are forced to remain within doors, and, with those who are habitually inside, make the assembly room rather crowded. Mr. Schoer has arranged things in such a manner that confusion does not reign, but conversation is carried on in an ordinary tone so that anyone wishing to study may do so. Nevertheless with all these precautions we are certainly in need of a new building and must all strive therefor.

Last Tuesday single session fever raged rampant among the students. A petition to be put before the Board was written up, having as its substance that school would take up at 9 and let out at 2:15, thus reducing our noon period to twenty minutes and forcing everyone to bring his lunch. As things are now we get out at 3 and have one hour for noon in which time nearly three-fourths of the students go home for their luncheon. So we see, even from the eating standpoint the petition is all bunk and would certainly be thrown down by the Board.

Last Wednesday afternoon the cast for the Senior play met in the Victory theatre, where they practised the first two acts of "A Crazy Idea." Say take it from me, folks, that play is a scream. You laugh, laugh, and then laugh some more. Who could be so immune and unfriendly to true mirth as not to laugh at the exploits of Catherina and John, and that negro character "sho do make de mirf flow from my soul." It is now good brisk weather for working, so let us all get in and boost for the Senior play. Let us celebrate Thanksgiving in the right way by attending the Thanksgiving comedy and thus show that we are thankful for Thanksgiving; thankful for the high school play on Thanksgiving; thankful that there is a high school and that there is a Senior class able to give a play, and that we are physically and financially able to go, and thus top off a day of turkey and cranberry sauce with a good wholesome laugh.

Mr. Schoer accompanied the boys to Lakeport last Saturday night and reports that he was amply justified for making the trip. He says that all the boys played very well, but says that Paul Mathews deserves special mention. It seems that the fiery captain made the first three field goals and thus put Lakeport out of the runing.

The next lyceum program will be held on November the 19th, or one week from today. Mr. Jussell, who is in command of the program, announces that there will be something out of the ordinary. Mr. Schoer will have charge of the bimonthly and will undoubtedly give us some good laughs.

The Latin IV class is now working on the dramatization of the first book of Virgil's "Aeneid." Each one in the class works separately. The play is to be written like a movie secenario. As the "Aeneid" is very dramatic the dramatization is very interesting work.

Several Senior girls became infused with class spirit last Sunday and after much labor put up a large '16 on the hill.

The H. D. L. Club informs us that it has purchased some very beautiful pillow tops and pennants for special decorations. The colors of the club are white and black, and these emblems are the letters H. D. L., black lettering upon a white background. This girls' club is a very progressive organization and has already taken its place in Ukiah society. The club has been asked to take charge of a booth at the Presbyterian church fair. It was voted to accept this offer, and the young ladies have already began preparations to make their booth as attractive as possible.

HINTS ON THE CARE OF ROADS DURING WINTER

Water Chief Cause of Damage

Water, not cold, is the cause of the deterioration of roads in winter, according to the road specialists of the department of agriculture. Cold weather does not in itself injure roads, no matter whether they are earth, gravel or macadam. In fact, an earth road will stand more traffic when it is solidly frozen than at any other time. Excess water, however, is always detrimental to a highway. When cold weather turns this water into ice, the damage that it does is greatly increased. Ice occupies considerably more space than the water from which it is formed, and every person who has lived in a cold climate is familiar with the powerful bursting effect of water when left to freeze in a confined vessel. The same action takes place when a wet road freezes to any considerable depth. It simply bursts, or as we generally term it in road parlance, the road heaves. Later, when the frost leaves, the road is disintegrated and the road ruts badly. If this process is repeated a number of times during the winter, a gravel or macadam road may be practically destroyed, while an earth road may become entirely impassable.

A dry road will not heave. Rock gravel, sand and even clay when perfectly dry contracts slightly on freezing. In order to expand on freezing, these materials must contain or be mixed with water, and the more water they contain the greater the expansion which will take place. But so long as the road remains frozen the damage does not become apparent. Hence the frequent and erroneous idea that it is the thaw which injures the road. The injury was done when the water in the road froze and the particles of the road surface—broken stone, sand, or still finer particles of earth or clay—were pushed apart by the expanding power of the freezing water. The thaw merely allows the ice to melt and assume its original volume as water.

The remedy is self-evident. Keep the water out of the road. The time to begin preventive measures is early in the fall, before the rains begin. If the road goes into the winter thoroughly dry, with the surface and drainage in good condition, the chances are extremely favorable that it will come out all right the following spring.

Keep the ditches and drains open. Remove all accumulations of weeds, grass, etc., which tend to retain moisture and obstruct drainage. Furthermore, do this work early, while the ground is still dry and hard. Vegetation and litter hold water like a sponge and allow it gradually to soak in and soften the earth. The job before the road man is to keep the hard dry surface formed in the summer time from becoming softened by the fall and winter rains and snows. When the fall rains begin the earth or gravel road should be dragged frequently to prevent the formation of ruts and the collection of water. All raveled places on macadam surfaces should be carefully filled in and consolidated.

During the winter, whenever a thaw is coming on, the cross drains and side ditches should be opened up as far as possible so as to prevent water collecting along the roadway. If the thaw is so pronounced that the roadway is softened, the drag should be used; sometimes one round trip of the drag, with the hitch reversed, will entirely rid the earth road of slush and melting snow and leave the road surface practically dry. Don't get the idea that the drag is not needed on your earth and gravel roads in the winter time. Instead, keep it where you can get at it readily, for if the winter is an ordinary one you will need it many times.

Winter destruction begins in the early fall. The best way to prevent such destruction is to forestall it. Keep the road dry and remember that so long as it remains so it will not be seriously injured by frost. Keep the drains open, the ditches clear, remove all vegetation and litter, and use the drag frequently. If the road is kept dry to a depth of two feet below the surface there will be little trouble from the coldest winter.

WHAT WILL BE DONE WITH MENDOCINO EXHIBIT?

The question of what will be done with the Mendocino county exhibit at the exposition after the exposition has closed, is engaging the attention of both the supervisors and the exposition commissioners. The same problem has confronted the Sonoma bodies and they have finally decided to take the exhibit to Santa Rosa and place it in the courthouse with a competent man in charge. A like disposition will probably be made of the Mendocino exhibit. It will in all probability be brought to Ukiah and a place rented to house it. There are show cases, etc., that are worth a great deal of money and they ought not to be stored. The best way is to keep the exhibit intact and keep it up now that we have a good start in that direction. It should be added to from time to time, and a part be kept available for shipment, so that whenever there is a land show, a state fair, or similar occasion we may ship some sort of a representative exhibit to it. The only other way out is to discontinue the exhibit and sell the stuff accumulated at a great loss. When the fair closes fittings of all kinds will be a drug on the market and it is doubtful if the county could raise a quarter of what our equipment has cost us.

THE EASTERN ELECTIONS

The ability to whistle was given to a man as a bracer for failing courage. The elections in Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York have opened the throttles of all the Republican whistles in the country, says the S. F. Star.

Massachusetts, a strongly Republican state, elected a Republican governor. Therefore, say the wise ones, Massachusetts has repudiated the Wilson policies. Why or how the Wilson policies have anything to do with the state government of Massachusetts is not revealed by the wise ones. Not a single Wilson policy was on the ballot, and the election of the Democratic candidate for governor of the Bay State would have had no more effect on the acts of congress than will the election of the Republican candidate.

What is it in the Massachusetts returns that so pleases the Republicans? Is it the fact that the Democratic candidate for governor received the largest vote ever cast in the state for a Democrat, and that he was defeated only by about 5,000 votes? Or is it the fact that the Republican candidate fell far short of receiving the full vote of his party?

If the Republicans see so much cause for rejoicing because their candidate was elected governor in Massachusetts, then Democrats have even more cause for rejoicing because Democratic candidates for governor were elected in Maryland and Kentucky, which are always doubtful states, and certainly not so generally Democratic as Massachusetts is Republican. If McCall's election as governor of Massachusetts has the great political significance ascribed to it by the Republicans, what do they see in the Kentucky and Maryland returns? Mississippi went Democratic, as usual, but no Democrat is silly enough to say the Mississippi election has national political significance.

In New York state the Republicans elected three candidates for congress in three Republican districts, though one of them has recently elected unusually strong Democrats. The main feature of the New York election is the repudiation by a whopping majority of the proposed new constitution that was so heartily endorsed by Elihu Root and the whole Republican crowd of politicians in that state. It was a reactionary, up-to-date Republican document, and was snowed under by a vote of about 400,000. Has that no "political significance"?

The prospective employment of 4000 men steadily for the coming two years at the Union Iron Works would seem to indicate that the wave of prosperity which has enlivened business in the eastern states has at last reached the Pacific coast. The capacity of the Union Iron Works plant will be taxed to carry out its contracts at present on hand. Coast business has already felt the impulse and things begin to look good. While a number have been looking forward to hard times the coming winter prosperity has slipped in unheralded and the croakers have shut up, rolled up their sleeves and gone to work. Bank resources and deposits on the entire coast have greatly increased in the past few months and railroad traffic in the west this year broke all records for the month of October, and prospects are good for a continuance of capacity business.

SAN FRANCISCO ELECTION

Voters do some queer things. After returning Mayor Rolph, of San Francisco, to office by a good majority, they have tied his hands, so to speak, by electing a majority of supervisors inimical to his policies. It is believed that the proposed purchase of Spring Valley water company, one of the avowed Rolph policies, was responsible for the decision of the voters.

MOTHER ABANDONS NEW-BORN BABE

Found Under Vacant House

Fort Bragg was horrified Tuesday evening when the news was passed about that a newly born live baby was found naked under a vacant house in the south eastern part of town, says the Fort Bragg Advocate.

Children passing by the big yellow residence, back of the Arverson home owned by Judge Peirsol, heard the little baby crying and notified Mrs. Cora Livingston, who investigated and took the little girl to her home.

It was lying on the cold damp ground without clothing, and had not been given the proper medical care that is necessary to preserve life.

Constable Bert Johnson and Dr. Sanborn were called, the latter giving the attention it resuired.

Bert worked all that night and up to eleven o'clock this morning on the case, but he solved it.

No arrests will be made until this afternoon.

In speaking to the writer today at noon, he said that Meta Grass, a 20-year-old unmarried girl was the mother, and that she had confessed to him, in part as follows:

She resided about half a mile beyond the Peirsol house. While passing the place she entered the kitchen and, after giving birth to the child, lifted up a trap door in the floor and dropped it to the ground beneath. She then walked home.

The child was born at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and it was not found until 5; however, it is believed that it will live.

The mother, Bert said, is willing to take the babe and care for it.

Ignorance and fright were probably two of the motives which prompted her to do the heartless act.

CELEBRATES 11TH BIRTHDAY

Irene Wegner celebrated her 11th birthday last Wednesday evening by entertaining 14 of her young friends at a party at her home in this city. Games and refreshments served to pass the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hamer spent a few days in Upper Lake the first of the week.

Mrs. Hugh Cox returned Tuesday from several days' visit in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gibson and daughter, Elmer, are visiting Mrs. Gibson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Heryford of this city.

Lew Garner, of Arizona, who has been visiting his brother, Tom, in this city, and also relatives in Lake county, will return home in the near future.

WILLITS LETTER

Willits, Nov. 10—The Odd Fellows are making some long desired changes in the arrangements on their second floor. Heretofore there have been three ante rooms but now there will only be two. The first ante room has been turned into a kitchen which will have an outside entrance at the head of the stairs and be connected at the other end by an archway with the banquet room. A brick flue is being built in this room for the cookstove and cupboards for the dishes have been built into the wall. In the front they will have a large sink and drain boards for washing the dishes. Everything will be as convenient as could be arranged. A new floor has been laid in the banquet room and it will be painted and papered. The ban quet room will now have an exit at both ends which will be a great convenience and also a necessity in case of a fire.

Monday afternoon 30 more convicts were brought up in a special car from San Quentin to work on the state highway in the northern part of the county.

We had 1.04 inches of rain last Monday, which makes 2.28 inches for the season. It turned off cold and the stockmen are now very much worried about the winter feed. Mount San Hedrin is white with snow.

Willie Whitney made a record run from Sacramento the first of the week. The entire distance was covered in a period of ten hours and part of the way the roads were in very bad condition on account of the rain the night before. Willie says the Ford is the only car for he and his mother passed a number of larger cars stuck in the mud and for a joke they offered to pull them out with their Ford.

Work has commenced on the Standard Oil Company's distributing plant. The company has an acre of ground and will make Willits the distributing point for all of Northern Mendocino county and the Mendocino coast. It will be their largest distributing system between Santa Rosa and Eureka.

The infant daughter of J. A. Pullen met with a painful accident while playing in front of the fireplace at their home near Sherwood last Tuesday. Her dress caught fire and in almost an instant she was one mass of flames. Her mother smothered the blaze by wrapping her in a blanket and Dr. Raymond Babcock was summoned. The doctor tells us that the injuries are very painful but that it was not be serious as only the skin was burned. The injuries reach from her knees to her breast.

Pres. McPeak received four Overland automobiles the first of the week and has already sold one of them to Attorney Con. H. Goldberg.

Among the Mendocino people called to the county seat on account of naturalization day are C. E. Swanson, John Larson, A. L. Patten, F. Baily, John Westerlund and H. Figaro.
